

NATO CIMIC Staff Course

Aim The Civil Military Cooperation (CIMIC) Advance Course is a course for all CIMIC staff officers working on HQ operational level. The aim of the CIMIC Advance Course is to provide the individual student with a thorough understanding of the definition, aim, components, principle tasks, function and organization of CIMIC and an understanding of CIMIC planning and integration at the HQ's. A basic understanding of CIMIC is required to follow this course. It is advised that students first participate in the tactical level CIMIC course. The course is open for CIMIC staff officers working at operational level and representatives of International Organizations (IOs), Non-governmental Organizations (NGOs) and Governmental Organizations (GOs). After receiving additional mission-orientated training, the student will be able to deploy and assume duties within CIMIC formations, headquarters and liaison agencies.

Subjects of the course - CIMIC experiences - CIMIC planning - Mission experiences - Legal aspects - Liaison with IOs / NGOs/GOs - CIMIC staff integration

Organisations and concepts - NATO, UN - CIVIL MILITARY COOPERATION CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE - Non-governmental and governmental organizations - International organizations

Length of the course The CIMIC Advance Course is a one-week course that runs from 8 am on Monday to 12 pm on Friday.

Syndicate work is part of the course that will run into the early evening.