CIMIC Award of Excellence 2019

Submit Your Nomination

Introduction:

The CIMIC Award of Excellence has been positioned during CIMIC Centre of Excellence's 10th Anniversary Event in 2017 in The Hague as the marquee symbol of this institution towards the wide array of stakeholders in civil-military interaction and the CIMIC Community of Interest worldwide.

Our Intent:

The intent for 2018 and onwards is that the Award should be given annually to one individual and one institutional Awardee for their outstanding contributions and engagement in the much larger field of civil-military interaction. With this, individual and institutional efforts can be honoured, which contribute to the better interaction between both sides and rise the significance of civil-military interaction and CIMIC.

The Award:

The 2017 Individual Award

Nomination Process:

For the nomination of an Awardee a first description of the specific engagement and the project of the institution or individual person is needed - initially the following information:
