

Invitation to the EU-NATO CIMIC Pilot Course (Activity Number 25-26/PILOT/14)

The Hague, The Netherlands 04 – 08 May 2026

The Civil-Military Cooperation (CIMIC) Centre of Excellence (CCOE) have the honor to organize, under the aegis of the of the European Security and Defence College (ESDC) and in partnership with the Military Planning and Conduct Capability (MPCC), a pilot course focused on the EU and NATO approaches to CIMIC. The pilot course will take place at the CCOE in The Hague, The Netherlands, at the Majoor Jan Linzel Complex, from 04 to 08 May 2026.

In today's complex security environment, threats increasingly transcend national borders and operational domains. Hybrid threats, cyber risks, and challenges in space and maritime security demonstrate the need for robust international cooperation. NATO remains the cornerstone of collective defense of its members in Europe and, as demonstrated again in the context of Russia's military aggression against Ukraine in 2022, EU's strategic partnership with NATO is essential for the Euro-Atlantic security. Since the 2016 NATO Warsaw Summit, both organizations have strengthened cooperation across multiple strategic areas, including countering hybrid threats and terrorism, sharing information to address cyber risks, supporting capacity-building in security and defence, and facilitating military mobility across Europe. This partnership was further reinforced in early 2023 with the third Joint Declaration on EU-NATO cooperation, which emphasized strengthening collective resilience, protecting critical infrastructure, and countering hybrid threats, including foreign interference and disinformation campaigns.

Despite these advances, there remains a pressing need to enhance awareness and understanding of CIMIC and to provide personnel with practical training that enables effective coordination in complex, multinational operational environments. To address these gaps, the CCOE—appointed in 2017 as the European Union Discipline Leader for CIMIC by the European Union Military Committee—is conducting the EU-NATO CIMIC Course. This course aims to establish a shared understanding of EU and NATO CIMIC structures, enhancing interoperability and operational effectiveness. Participants will gain comprehensive knowledge of EU and NATO CIMIC concepts and processes, and learn to apply them in realistic operational settings, building mutual trust, preventing overlaps, and fostering synergy. Through scenario-based exercises, case studies, and interactive lectures, participants will acquire hands-on experience in planning, coordinating, and executing CIMIC activities, with an emphasis on communication, teamwork, and collaboration in multinational and multi-agency environments.

The EU-NATO CIMIC Pilot Course is specifically designed for military and civilian personnel involved in Civil-Military Cooperation. We particularly encourage nominations of participants actively involved in CIMIC functions or aspiring to assume such responsibilities.

We look forward to welcoming you in The Hague.
